Miss Claribel Eustis and Torrance Fiske Married at Minikahda

Bride and Groom will Sail
January 5 for Honeymoon in Europe.

BEFORE an altar of Christmas trees, greens and tall lighted Cathedral candles, marriage vows were spoken last evening at the Minikahda club between Miss Claribel Eustis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buckminster Eustis, and Mr. Torrance Fiske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Fiske. Dr. Marion D. Shutter of the Church of the Redeemer read the service at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of several hundred relatives and friends of the couple. A stringed orchestra played a program of nuptial music before and during the ceremony.

Charles and Billy Lucking, nephews of the bride, who were the first of the bridal party to enter, carried the white satin ribbons which were held on either side by the ushers to form an aisle down which the party passed. The ribbon carriers wore suits of white. The ushers entered next. They were Messrs. Melville Pepard, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Edward Decker, Charles Bayly, Frederick Wheeler, Russell Plympton of Minneapolis and Pierce Butler, Jr., of St. Paul.

The bridesmaids entered two by two. They were the Misses Irene Kraft, Henrietta McDonald, and Margaret Crosby, of Minneapolis; Virginia Corse of Bryn Mawr, Pa., formerly of this city; Pauline Whitney of St. Cloud and Mary Ives of Ann Arbor, Mich. Mrs. Melville Pepard (Lola Fiske) and Mrs. William Alfred Lucking (Catherine Eustis), sister of the bride, of Detroit, Mich., matrons of honor, entered next walking singly. The attendants all wore gowns fashioned of white chiffon with silver girdles. The maids carried arm bouquets of Allamand and red California berries and the matrons of honor maiden hair fern.

The bride entered with and was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned in white satin and wore a tulle veil of train length. The bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley and orchids. Mr. Hubert Kennedy of St. Paul attended Mr. Fiske as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Eustis and Mr. and Mrs. Fiske and the members of the bridal party received with the bride and bridegroom at the reception which followed the ceremony. Mrs. Eustis' gown was fashioned of soft green brocaded silk and silver lace. Mrs. Fiske wore a gown of white chiffon over silver cloth. Poinsettias, ferns and red candles formed the decorations on the bridal table.

Mr. Fiske and his bride will sail on "The Providence" from New York on Thursday, January 5, for Europe on their honeymoon. Following their European tour they will make their home in Minneapolis.

Among the out-of-town guests was Mrs. Franklin Ives of Cincinnati, Ohio, an aunt of the bride.

C.B. Eustis Dead; Pioneer Jeweler Founder, With Twin Brother, of First Gem Store South of Washington Ave.

Charles B. Eustis, 2309 Girard Ave., South, pioneer jeweler of Minneapolis, died today.

He was the son of Charles Lyman Eustis and was born in Dixfield, ME., April 20, 1848.

Mr. Eustis came to Minneapolis in the fall of 1872 where, with his twin brother, George B. Eustis, he established at 234 Nicollet Ave. the first jewelry store south of Washington Av. Following the trend of business development, they moved their store successively to Fourth St., Sixth St., and then to Seventh St. Of recent years he had been identified with S. Jacobs & Company.

For many years Mr. Eustis was a member of the choir of the Church of the Redeemer. He was one of the charter members of the Apollo Club and the Minneapolis Choral Society. He also was one of the charter members of the Minneapolis Club. He was early active in the Minnetonka Yacht Club.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 pm tomorrow at Lakewood Chapel. Interment will be in Lakewood cemetery.

Mr. Eustis is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Torrance Fiske and Mrs. William Lucking, the latter of Detroit, Mich., his brother and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Whitman of Minneapolis.
